Fitness Careers are Expanding...

Career Outlook

Looking for a career where you can stay fit and change lives? A professional fitness and personal training career provides both. It all starts with the right skills, knowledge and credentials, which Bryan University's programs give you. We fast track you to success – so you can launch your career and start making a difference sooner.

Expanding Careers

Careers for health and fitness professionals, group exercise instructors, and personal trainers are projected to grow faster than average through the year 2026 at a rate of 10-14 percent with projected job openings of 55,000 in the US.¹

Preparing now means you'll be ready for the jobs of the future.

Diverse Employers

Health and fitness professionals have a range of opportunities for employment. From corporate settings to healthcare facilities to high-energy gyms and fitness centers, there's a work environment for all personality types, including:

- Gyms and fitness facilities
- Corporate fitness centers
- Rehabilitation centers
- Self-employment

"The experience at Bryan University exceeded my expectations and improved my life."

— Claire Cielinski, Bryan U Graduate

Attractive Opportunities

A degree in fitness and exercise can put you on the path to numerous jobs in a fulfilling career field. Aside from financial rewards, it's a career where each day provides the opportunity to enhance the health and well-being of others in positions such as:

- Certified Personal Trainer
- Gym Staff Member
- Independent Trainer/Contractor
- Nutrition/Supplement Store Associate
- Fitness/Wellness Coordinator
- Certified Group Exercise Instructor
- Fitness Educator

The cost to take two certifications for personal training and group exercise is included with the program tuition, along with all your books and courseware!

Gain the Skills Employers Need

As a student at Bryan University, you'll attend a top fitness school where you'll gain extensive knowledge in our interactive classrooms from faculty who have real-world industry experience. Your courses will provide:

- An intensive curriculum reviewed annually by industry experts which includes a core focus on exercise science, nutrition, and personal trainer certification.
- Technical fitness knowledge needed to give you an advantage in your career.
- Critical business skills you'll need to succeed in today's competitive environment.

Accelerate Knowledge in Cutting-Edge Classrooms

As an online student, you'll experience live, interactive classes where you'll be able to see, hear and interact with your instructors right from your computer at home. You'll also be able to participate in online, collaborative learning with other students, view multimedia presentations of course content, and engage in ongoing forum discussions with instructors and students.

Dual Enrollment Available

You can enroll in the Personal Trainer Undergraduate Certificate and Associate Degree in Applied Exercise and Fitness concurrently. This means you receive both credentials upon completion of your associate degree program, in addition to any third-party certifications you've completed.

Continue to the Bachelor's Degree Level

Once you complete your associate degree, you may consider continuing your education at the bachelor's degree level. Bryan University offers a renowned Bachelor of Science Degree in Professional Fitness Training & Exercise Science, developed in partnership with Personal Training Global (PTA Global). With this degree, you'll find additional career opportunities such as:

- Certified Personal Trainer for Specialty Populations
- Fitness Educator
- Sports Performance Coach
- Fitness Studio/Gym Owner
- Exercise Director/Club Manager
